- (v) past or present university education, or
- (vi) the tenure of office in a co-operative trading society, or
- (c) the holding of a title conferred by any law.

as are specified in Schedule II in the case of that constituency.

(2) The qualifications of an elector for a special constituency shall be the qualifications specified in Schedule II in the case of that constituency.

9. (1) An electoral roll shall be prepared for every constituency, in which shall be entered the names of all persons appearing to be entitled to be registered as electors for that constituency. It shall be published in the constituency together with a notice specifying the mode in which and the time within which any person whose name is not entered in the roll and who claims to have it inserted thereon, or any person whose name is on the roll and who alleges to the satisfaction of the Returning Authority of the name of any other person on the roll, may prefer a claim or objection to the Returning Authority.

(2) The regulations for the time being in force in any province for the purpose of elections to the Legislative Council of that province in regard to the following matters, namely:—

(i) the authority by whom the electoral roll shall be prepared, and the particulars to be contained in the roll,

(ii) the time at which the roll shall be prepared,

(iii) the publication of the roll in the constituency to which it relates,

(iv) the mode in which and the time within which claims and objections may be preferred,

(v) the constitution and appointment of Returning Authorities for the purpose of claims and objections,

(vi) the manner in which notices in claims or objections shall be published,

(vii) the place, date, and time at which the matter in which claims or objections shall be heard, shall apply for the purpose of the holding of elections within that province to the Council of State.

Provided that the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette, direct that such regulations and regulations of his may amend shall be made in the application of those regulations.

(3) The orders made by the Returning Authority shall be final, and the electoral roll shall be amended in accordance therewith and shall, as so amended, be republished in the case of each province in such manner as may be prescribed by the regulations thereof for the publication of electoral rolls of constituencies of the Legislative Council.

(4) The electoral roll shall stand open from the date of such publication, and shall remain so open for a period of three years after the expiration of which period a fresh roll shall be prepared in accordance with these rules.

Provided that the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette, direct the preparation in accordance with these rules of a fresh roll at any time before the expiration of the said period.

(5) If a constituency is called upon to elect a member or members when an electoral roll has ceased to have force and before the completion of the new electoral roll, the old electoral roll shall for the purpose of that election continue to operate as the electoral roll for that constituency.

(6) Notwithstanding anything heretofore contained, any person may apply to such authority as may be appointed by the Council to the Governor General in Council for the amendment of any electoral roll for the time being in force, and the Governor General in Council may, at any time after any such application has been made in respect of an electoral roll, by notification in the Gazette, direct the preparation of a list of amendments thereto, and all the provisions of this rule shall apply in the case of every such list in like manner as they apply in the case of electoral rolls.

Provided that, where any such application is made for the correction of an existing entry on the electoral roll, and the said authority is satisfied after such inquiry as the Governor General in Council may by regulation prescribe that the entry relates to the applicant and a surname or addition in any particular may be inserted in the roll or name it to be amended accordingly.

(7) Where any list of amendments has been republished under sub-rule (6), the electoral roll to which it relates shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

10. (1) Every person registered on the electoral roll for the time being in force for any constituency shall while so registered be entitled to vote at an election of a member or members for that constituency.

Provided that—

(a) no person shall vote at any general election in more than one general constituency, and

(b) no person shall vote at any election if he is subject to any disability stated in rule 2.

(2) If any person is in the course of the hearing of an election petition under these rules proved to have voted at the election in contravention of the provision in sub-rule (1), his vote shall be void.
